

Language Proficiency Proof

The lectures at the Jesuit University Ignatianum in Krakow are held in Polish and in English.

While studying at Ignatianum you are expected to be fluent in one or the other language.

I hereby certify that the student: _____

(student's name) has sufficient level of _____ (choose Polish or English)

to follow the lectures.

No particular concessions will be given to students whose level of language is lower than the expected level of language.

The minimum recommended language of instruction level is B2 according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

Responsible person at the Sending Institution

Date

Signature and Stamp
